

BRUNS

Gallo Roman Museum

In the Gallo Roman Museum sparkle the new temporary exhibition 'From Neanderthal to Gallo-Roman'. Visitors discover what it was really like to live in the Roman time, in Rome and far beyond. Young and old, poor and rich, the Romans take you back 2000 years. You discover the real stories, you go on adventure through the Roman empire and admires 250 master pieces of the British Museum.

The attractively designed exhibition 'From Neanderthal to Gallo-Roman' is an enriching experience for the whole family.

Authority

City Tongeren
Maastrichterstraat 10
3700 Tongeren
Belgium
T +32 (0)12 800 000

Location

Tongeren, Belgium

Surface area

1122 m²

The exhibition is designed in a pure line pattern and with subtle fresh pastel colours. Which makes texts and objects stand out well. The collection pieces shines on special developed pedestals, with or without a display case.

The entire exhibition can also be followed via an audio tour. Not only for adults, but also tailor-made for children. There are films in which Romans young and old, talk about their daily activities and how they feel about them. There are also interactive elements such as computer games with different levels of difficulty, and visitors can learn to write, cook or build like Romans.

BRUNS

Gallo Roman
Museum

Destination
Museum
Type of exhibition
Temporary

Project director
Xavier van Houthave

Design
SHSH Architecture &
Scenography
Molièrelaan 508 boîte 7
1050 Brussel
Belgium
T +32 2 888 62 73

Start
February 2020
Delivery
April 2021