

BRUNS

Sorted! Postal Play Space

Let your children run off steam in the miniature world of mail. There's sackloads of fun to be had! The Postal Museum has a dedicated play space for children aged 0-8 which is perfect for little ones to exercise their imaginations and use up excess energy. It features: Trolleys, pulleys, slides and chutes, Weighing machines, letter boxes and a vintage post van. Toy town building blocks, Uniforms to try on, an interactive Sorting Office and a mini neighbourhood of streets and houses. The perfect family stopping post? We've got it... Sorted!

Authority

The Postal Museum
Mr. Andy Richmond
Phoenix Place
WC1X 0DA
London
England
E info@postalmuseum.org
I www.postalmuseum.org

Location

London

Surface area

200 m²

BRUNS

Sorted! Postal Play Space

Destination

Museum

Type of exhibition

Permanent

Project director

Harry Jansen

Design

KCA London

Hercules Road, Arch 194

SE1 7LD London

England

Start

October 2016

Delivery

June 2017

