

One Planet

de nieuwe tentoonstelling
the new exhibition

Museon renews with One Planet. The seventeen sustainability goals of the United Nations are chosen for the central storyline of this interactive exhibition. With this exhibition Museon focus on the International city of peace and justice, on issues that are important for a peaceful and save world. Visitors will be inspired to acquire knowledge and to form concrete ideas that can contribute in a better world. The motto is 'Become a hero on your planet'.

The world population is growing, the technology is developing rapidly, we travel more often and are almost permanently online. Therefore we are increasingly interconnected. At the same time we realize more and more what our impact is on nature and our environment and that we need our natural environment. The United Nations will address the major global challenges with sustainable solutions. They have been formulated for this seventeen sustainable development goals, they want to achieve before 2030.
